

Past Interns

Aryana Thapliyal

Student

Cornell University, NY, USA

Interning with OKB Hope Foundation as a Business Development Intern allowed me to make a tangible impact on the foundation using my prior consulting skills. I have learned how to think outside the box and have made meaningful connections with the team during the process.

Gyana Srivastava

Student

Wheaton College, MA, USA

Working as a Marketing and Business Development Intern has helped me broaden my toolkit. The OKB Hope Foundation team truly share the passion they exemplify.

Ave Kludze

Student

Cornell University, NY, USA

Assisting the OKB Hope Foundation as a Web Design Intern provided me the opportunity to pursue my interest in healthcare and computer programming. The foundation is a group of passionate, upbeat, and inspiring individuals - an experience I strongly recommend.
